Chapter 1
Suntardale
The very long chapter

Once there was a girl named Suki she wanted everyone to stop littering stop making so much smoke and to stop building buildings. She always threw away (in the bin) her rubbish and went to school on her bike and had a tiny house but nobody else did that. She wanted to change the world! she tried her hardest. She even put up signs!

She felt like she had to save the world and animals. She felt sad, discouraged and angry. She wished someone just someone would listen or help her. She went to her friends house on her bike. Her friends name was Elna. They played super heros. Suki and Elna loved playing

Said Elna. Oopsy! So they started making posters...  and more etc, etc. So they stuck them up everywhere (almost). I've got an idea. Said Elna! We can get ice cream. Oooh lets get a cone with a scoop! NO, I've got a better idea. We can get a cone with two scoops! That's such a good idea! said Suki. but just that second they saw someone litter! What!! said Suki. How dare they? Suki couldn't accept that. so she walked up to the person and said. Hey! Arent you going to pick that up? No. Wat! What about pollution! And animals dieing! Meh. I don't care. Hmph. I'll just pick it up, said Suki. But then she saw some mean looking people dump oil and toxic waste in the Ocean. What!! Why would they do that. Sighhhhh... lets go home said Suki. Why? asked Elna. I'll talk to you later. she said. When they got home Elna asked Suki why didn't we keep on putting up signs? Because nobody listened! said Suki. Not nobody some poeple might but you just don't see them. Maybe they're also looking for someone and don't see you. I know you can do it! just try again! Said Elna. Suki!! Suki!! Suki!! Elna chanted. Suki!! Suki!! Suki!!

Chapter 2 !! XAXX!!

It was time to go to bed but Suki couldn't fall asleep she was just so happy! But somehow she fell asleep. In the morning she went to school. She found Elna and went to assembly. They had an announcement at assembly that there was a non-fiction book competition. Suki joined. It was meant to be 5 pages or more but they're not strict about it. This is Suki's book...
