

My (" Inventive Idris) Assistant

Hello Everyone,

Let me introduce myself to you, I Inventive Idris One of the round square Heros. I like to use my imagination to have new ideas and to come up with different ways of doing things that may not have been tried before.

I have new ideas & I can be creative and imaginative. I make ideas real by developing new ways of thinking and doing. I am ready to come up with different approaches instead of obvious ways.

I feel good when I invent something that solves a problem or makes a job easier or adds a new idea to the world. This is why everyone calls me Inventive Idris.

Now let me introduce you to my Assistant Creative Catherine. You must be thinking that how I met her. One fine day we had a games period, everybody was playing but I noticed that one girl was interestingly doing something with the petals of flowers, she was also enjoying the fragrance of the flowers. When I enquired about the same, she replied that she was trying to mix the fragrances and create some new ones. I was impressed by this and I immediately came to the conclusion that we both can make an amazing duo. While working with her, I found that she is confident in her area of expertise and willing to stand by her views, she is well manneered and respectful to one and all. She is time disciplined and aware

One day she dropped into my house and helped to repair my computer. I made a miniature fan and the wiring and on/off switch was attached by her.

We together prepared some moisturizers and face cleansers by organic materials. We both used our imagination and creativity to come up with new story, poem, piece of music, finding new ways to solve old and new problems putting ideas and materials together in a way that hasn't been done before being unafraid, to be different from everyone else, turn new ideas for inventions and turn them into reality by working out how to make them.

A superhero's assistant isn't just a helper, they are partners, friends and an indispensable part of a team. Creative Cathrene is the most valuable superhero to me and I feel so high to say that we are partners.
