

Diversity Dani and Free Faye

Once upon a time there was a young boy named Dani and the only thing Dani ever wanted was for other kids to treat everyone equally, but at his school kids were not treated equally. Dani was always judged for the way he looked and one day kids were judging him again, and he heard a voice saying “STOP IT! STOP JUDGING HIM!”. The kids stopped and walked away.

The person grabbed Dani’s hand and pulled him aside and said, “Hi my name is Faye, what is your name?” Dani replied, “Hi, I am Dani”.

Faye asked, “What class are you in?” and he replied, “I am in Ms Bontle’s class”.

Dani said, “We are in the same class, I am also in Ms Bontle’s class”.

Every break they sat with each other, until one break Dani asked Faye after school, “Would you like to come home with me today?”.

Faye replied, “Yes thank you, I would love to come over”.

2 hours later, school was over, and they were both so excited. They arrived at Dani’s house. Dani took Faye to his basement and Dani whispered to Faye and said, “Do you want to become superheroes?”.

Faye said “Of course! I have already come up with our superhero names, Diversity Dani and yours is Free Faye. Do you like the names?”.

"I love them, so creative," said Faye. "I must go now," said Faye.

"Aww, I wish you could stay," said Dani.

"Same", said Faye "Anyway bye".

"Bye", said Dani.

Next day at school they greeted, "Hi" said Faye, "Hey", said Dani.

"We have our first mission today! I am so excited", said Faye.

"Me too", said Dani.

"After school, let's go to my house", Faye said to Dani. "Ok", said Faye.

At Dani's house. "Ok let's see, Ms Croner's milk got stolen, Barry lost his cat and Sandy said she's at a concert and a little boy is getting bullied by some older kids" – "That is a long list!", said Dani.

"Which one do you think we must do first"? asked Faye.

"I think we should go to the concert first, being bullied is a big crime".

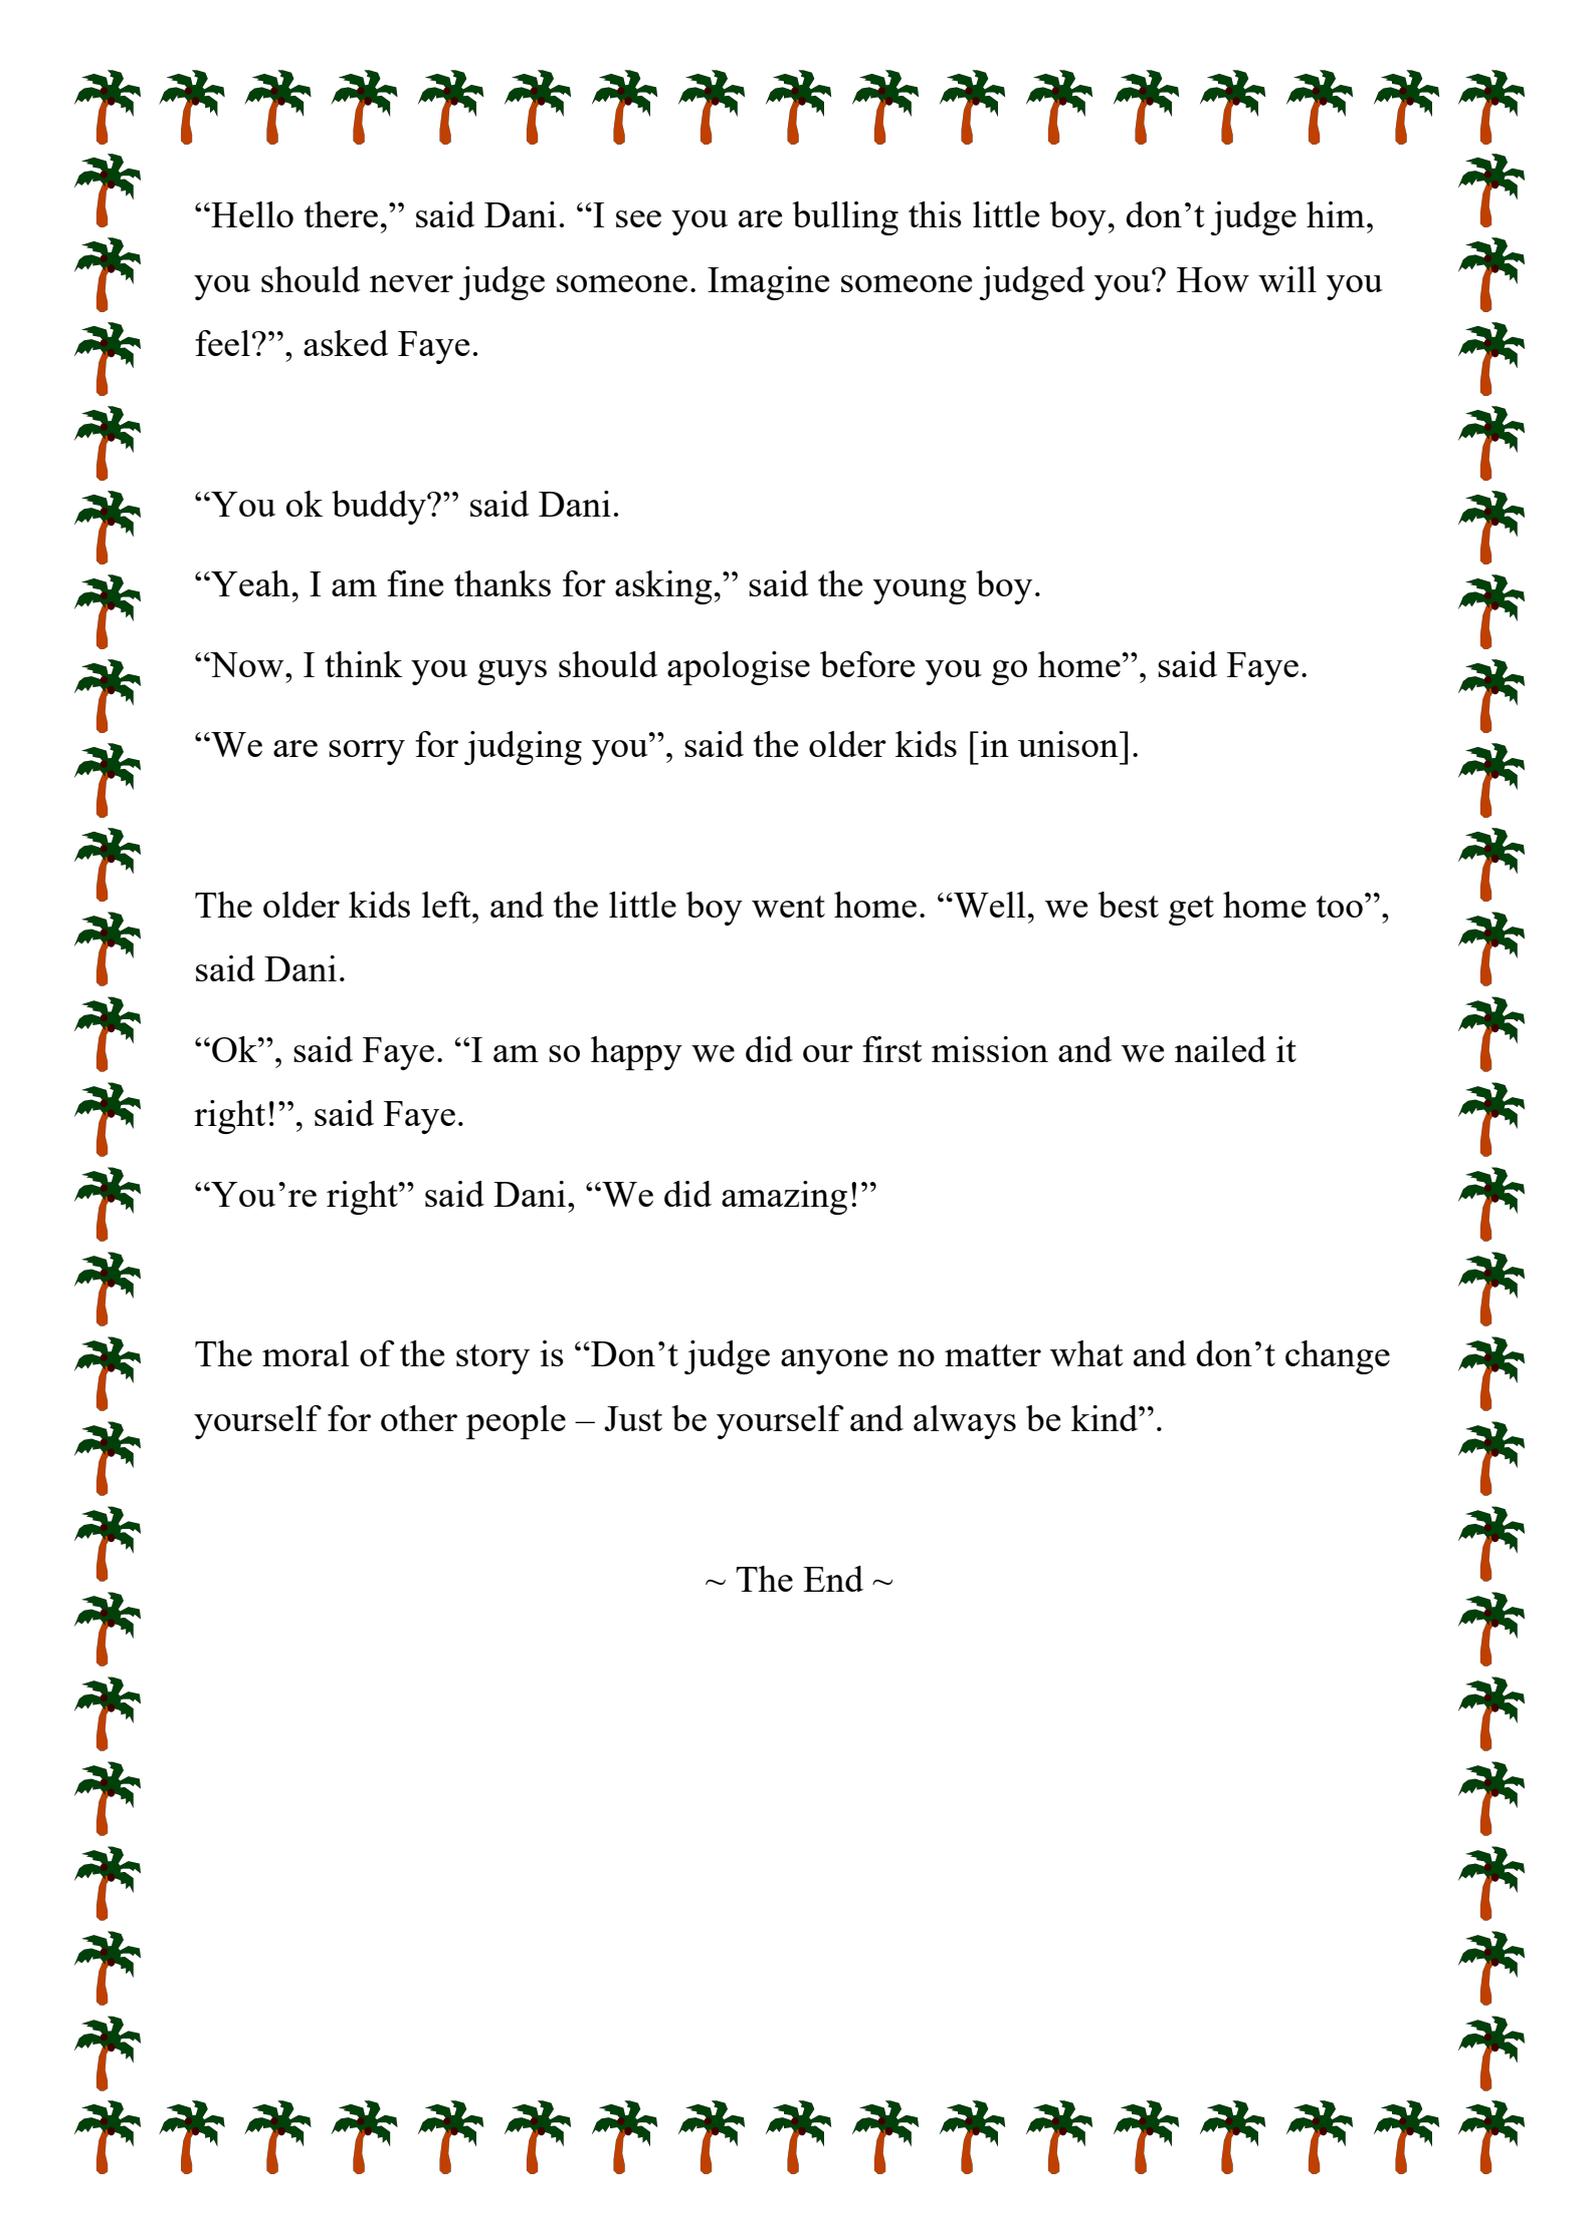

"Yeah, you're right, let's go", said Dani.

"Ok, we are here," said Dani. "Let's get to work," said Faye.

"Oh, look over there," said Dani. "There's the boy".

"Oh, you're right, I also see him". "Ok let's go".

"Ok, let's speak to the older kids".

“Hello there,” said Dani. “I see you are bullying this little boy, don’t judge him, you should never judge someone. Imagine someone judged you? How will you feel?”, asked Faye.

“You ok buddy?” said Dani.

“Yeah, I am fine thanks for asking,” said the young boy.

“Now, I think you guys should apologise before you go home”, said Faye.

“We are sorry for judging you”, said the older kids [in unison].

The older kids left, and the little boy went home. “Well, we best get home too”, said Dani.

“Ok”, said Faye. “I am so happy we did our first mission and we nailed it right!”, said Faye.

“You’re right” said Dani, “We did amazing!”

The moral of the story is “Don’t judge anyone no matter what and don’t change yourself for other people – Just be yourself and always be kind”.

~ The End ~