

Tenacious Tino and The Time War

It was 2360 AD, when things went wrong. No one knew what's gonna happen, everything was going okay, but suddenly, there was a UFO in the sky. There was an army of aliens, who burned peoples' homes, the buildings, shops and everything was destroyed. Casualties were little but many were injured.

Tenacious Tino was sad that he couldn't do anything. But he didn't give up, he and his friend Brilliant Ben invented a time machine, from which they could travel into the past and make an Earth barrier to protect them from the attacks, it took 8 months for them to make it; and they were ready for their first test.

"Wowww! Hey Brilliant Ben, looks like we're travelling at the speed of light!" Tino exclaimed. "You think its fun? I'm going to throw up!" Brilliant Ben yelled. "Check the quantum clock, are we in the past?" Tino asked.

Then Tino and Brilliant Ben started accomplishing their task, when it was done, they realised that they were stuck in the past as their time machine disappeared. The aliens were keeping a close eye on Earth, so they knew about the barrier that they built.

"We're stuck," Tino whispered, dread sinking in.

Brilliant Ben's face darkened. "The aliens knew. They weren't watching Earth... they were watching us. They let us build the barrier. They stole our time machine to keep us trapped." For the first time, Tino felt hopeless. "What do we do now? We're finished. Earth is still doomed."

Brilliant Ben grabbed his shoulders. "No! You're Tenacious Tino. You never give up. Remember who you are."

Tino inhaled sharply. He was tenacious. "You're right. And I've got a plan."

"Hey Brilliant Ben! I've an idea, do you remember when we were officially in the time when Earth was being attacked? We saw two aliens who came from the future to see if someone was planning to attack an alien army and we killed them. So, that means right now they are alive and we need to look for them, take their time machine and go in our time to protect the Earth and win the fight".

In no time, Tenacious Tino and Brilliant Ben started to find those aliens, and when they found them, they took their time machine but the aliens threatened them, "Take it if you want, because our army is going to reach your Earth very soon."

Tenacious Tino told Brilliant Ben to stay there and stop the aliens and he rushed to the present time under 2.37 seconds and encountered the Titan of the Aliens. But they were too many, he just couldn't fight them alone.

Thinking fast, he sprinted through, dodging flame blasts, passing through the wreckage until he reached the control area of the alien spaceship. With a press, he launched a missile barrage directly into the heart of the alien fleet. One by one, the ships fell.

Tino looked at the people he had saved. Their eyes, now, were filled with hope. Ben clapped him on the back. "You really are Tenacious Tino."
